MINUTES

The Seventy-Third Session (since the consolidation with the Fire Baptized Church in 1911) and the Fifth Spiritual Retreat of the North Carolina Conference of the Pentecostal Holiness Church met in Falcon, North Carolina on June 16, 1983 with the Vice-Chairman and Assistant General Superintendent, Reverend B. E. Underwood presiding. The conference was opened by Conference Superintendent J. Doner Lee at 9:00 A.M. followed by the singing of the hymn "Love Lifted Me" which was led by Reverend Raymond Potter and accompanied by Mrs. Annie Laura Randall at the organ and Reverend Ralph Jernigan, Jr., at the piano. Reverend W. Eddie Morris led in prayer.

Superintendent Lee presented the presiding officer after which the Conference Secretary Reverend Raymond Potter called the roll of the ordained ministers, missionaries, licensed ministers, and superannuated ministers. Those present answered to their names. Official registration was by enrollment cards.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE SUPERINTENDENT—1983

Mr. Chairman and Conference Members:

I greet you in the wonderful name of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. I am happy to report that my experience with the Lord is up to date. I love God's Word on which the fundamental doctrines of the Pentecostal Holiness Church are founded. I believe, preach and endeavor to daily live up to its doctrines of Regeneration, Sanctification, Baptism of the Holy Ghost, Divine Healing, the Imminent, Personal Premillennial Second Coming of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, the Gifts of the Spirit, and the entirety of God's Word. If this makes me a traditionalist, I plead guilty, for traditionalism is: The beliefs of those opposed to modernism, liberalism or radicalism (Webster). As the years pass, my appreciation grows fonder for our founding fathers who were dedicated, intelligent, God-fearing men who laid the foundation for our Church. I trust we will never leave or forget their precepts.

The year 1983 has been another very busy year. It has been my privilege and honor to represent this Conference in many of our churches for revival, special services: ground breakings, note burnings, organization of churches, dedications of churches, fellowship buildings and parsonages. I served as manager of Falcon and Piney Grove Camp Meetings, presided over all Conference Board, Christian Education, and Evangelism Board meetings, served as Editor of Evangel, and Chairman of various departments of our Conference.

With all the above, my office hours and meetings with church boards, church delegations and private council has made 1983 a full and profitable year.

As a member of the General Executive Board, General Board of Administration, and Chairman of Church Institutions, I have again enjoyed working with Bishop Leon Stewart, executive board members and officials of our great denomination. I have attended all official meetings and have represented this Conference, my denomination and God's kingdom to the best of my ability. I have been highly honored to serve my church for another year.

THE STATE OF THE NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE
December 31, 1983

The State of the North Carolina Conference for the year 1983 is again very good. During a calendar year, there are many activities in a Conference this size. We began the year with District Conference, Evangelism Rallies, Talent Rallies, Spring Revivals, Christian Worker's Institute, Conference, Youth Camps, Camp Meetings, to name a few. Along with all general church activities, the year is filled with golden opportunities to labor for the Lord. It takes dedication, prayer, stewardship and faithful laborers to continue to make gains year after year. And when all reports, tallies and auditing is over, with a thankful heart I say; Thank you, Lord, for the leadership of our good pastors, church official boards and dedicated church members. It all begins in the local church, small and large. Together, we help build God's kingdom around the world.

Our church membership has increased over last year. We began 1983 with 16,285 members and closed the year with 16,525—an increase of 240. Not as much as we would like to have shown, but we are still on the move upward and have the largest membership of any conference in the denomination. Thank God for the increase.

In our financial state, we again made increase over last year's giving. Our people love their church, conference, and general outreach. Many have gone the extra mile, given until it hurts to carry on God's work. Many of our churches go across the board in their conference and general tithe and budget. They are members of the "100% Club." Others are seeing that God honors this system. I trust each church will catch the vision; begin at home and then to the uttermost part of the world. This was Christ's commission to His disciples.

We are now facing a new year. Thank God and thank you for the increase. So let us be thankful for 1983, "but let us do more in 1984." There are still souls to be saved before the soon coming of the Lord.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

This is the first full year serving as Christian Education Director for Reverend Gary Strickland, and I place emphasis upon the "full" for he has been busy with this department. There have been rallies, conference, workshops, candy sales, youth camps, AFC, L.I.F.E. sessions, revivals and many other activities this year. Along with our efficient Christian Education Board and Brother Strickland's enthusiastic leadership, our Christian Education Department continues to make progress along all lines. It has been a joy to serve with him and the Christian Education Board.

EVANGELISM DEPARTMENT

The Evangelism Department under the leadership of Reverend L. B. Collins has again made progress this year. To begin the year, he consolidated the annual Evangelism Rallies with District Conference. In these rallies he gave a challenge for a year of soul winning. Beginning with a revival in each church during the spring months; March, April, and May, to be repeated through the year. Brother Collins is a very dedicated minister of the Gospel, conducting revivals and special workshops and emphasizing witnessing and soul winning for each Christian. It has been a joy to travel and work with Brother Collins and to labor with the Evangelism Board.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

The year 1983 has been a Banner Year for our Woman's Auxiliary. Always, last year's records are hard to improve on or surpass. But with a new challenge from President Faye Leggett, the Woman's Auxiliary Board, local Auxiliaries, and our Conference working together, we have set new records. Our giving to Harvest Train, Feast of Ingathering, Education, Missions, and local projects exceeded all previous records. This just doesn't happen by itself. It takes hard work. Again, thanks ladies, for a job well done.

OTHER AREAS OF PROGRESS

Each department has already mentioned an increase. However, we have our Mission Director, Reverend T. E. Long and our Mission Committee who continue to keep before us our World Mission Outreach. In our Annual Emphasis in July, we went over the top again giving more than in the previous year. Some churches after paying their required General Tithe and Conference Budget, make monthly faith pledges for support of a given missionary or mission project. We are happy to be a part of our World Mission Outreach.

The same can be said for our continued support of our schools and benevolent emphasis. May God continue to bless each as we all labor and give to help others.

GRATITUDE TO GOD

The great commission is to go, send, preach, teach, and tell the good news beginning at home and reaching out around the world. He uses human instrumentality to carry out this commission. Through His leadership and blessing, souls are saved and brought into the Kingdom of God. To Him, we give blessings and honor and praise and gratitude.

APPRECIATION COMMITTEE REPORT
June 16, 1983

The inspired writer asks, "How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher? And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!" (Romans 10:14-15)

Today we honor the Reverend Ronald Ramson Sasser. His active years of faithful service embrace fourteen (14) years of ministry in the North Carolina Conference.

He was born in Wayne County, February 22, 1925 and God had a special companion for him in the person of Miss Doris Jones. This home was blessed with two (2) children, Sheila Sasser Thompson and Ronald Ramson Sasser III. I understand he has the fourth.

Upon entering the Conference, he was assigned to Manley Grove for three (3) years. While pastoring the Manley's Grove Church, a phase of their building program was completed which included bricking the church and purchasing new furniture for the sanctuary.

His other pastorates include: Albritton and Greenleaf (known today as Liberty). Here he successfully pastored for eight (8) years. During his pastorate at Liberty, the congregation moved to a new area, purchased property and built a beautiful sanctuary.

I asked Brother Sasser for a statement—he said, "My goal was to build a church building for God, I realized this at the Liberty Pentecostal Holiness Church." He further stated, "I have kept my vows to the Lord and to the North Carolina Conference. I miss it very much."

Brother Sasser steps from the active ranks with honor and dignity. Officially superannuated, yes, retired, never! His pace has slowed to some degree because of physical disability, but the fire still burns, the desire for lost souls is still there. He has been faithful through the years to proclaim the Pentecostal Holiness message. He will remain faithful.

We salute our Brother Sasser and offer our congratulations for a job well done.

We would ask that this conference body stand to show our deep and sincere appreciation.

Respectfully submitted,
Rev. Bobby L. Collins

MEMOIRS COMMITTEE
June 1983

The Psalmist said, "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints." The prisoner of Patmos heard a voice from heaven saying, "Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors; and their works do follow them."

There is something beautiful and blessed about the homecoming of those who have faithfully served God, as we recall to mind their labors of love and remember with joy their sacrificial devotion to their Lord.

If Christ would have Mary's name remembered until the world's end for one box of ointment poured on His head, He certainly would have us to remember Rev. W. Thomas Smith, Rev. O. C. Cowan, and Rev. J. B. Stone, faithful soldiers of the cross, who poured out their lives in sacrificial service to God and humanity. They have retired from earth's field of benevolent labor and entered into the bright scenes of immortality, but we will remember them and give thanks to God for their holy lives and helpful service.

REV. W. THOMAS SMITH was called to his eternal reward at the full age of 88 years. Long before that summons came, he answered the call of God to preach the glorious Gospel of Jesus Christ. Many of the years of his ministry were spent in another denomination. In 1967 he joined the North Carolina Conference and pastored Raeford and the Johnson Memorial Church in Dunn. He was a sincere and dedicated servant of his Lord, who was always willing to do his best for the kingdom of God.

Brother Smith retired from the active ministry in 1974. Most of the years of his retirement were spent in Valdosta, Georgia. It was there that he was called to his eternal reward. Funeral services were held at the Faith Baptist Church in Georgia, and a graveside service was conducted at the Church of God cemetery in Autryville, North Carolina.

REV. O. C. COWAN was born February 7, 1903. For fifty of the eighty years of his pilgrimage he was a member of the North Carolina Conference. He joined the Conference in 1933 and retired in 1970.

During the thirty-seven years of his active ministry he evangelized, organized one church, and pastored a number of churches. His pastorates included Bizzells Grove, Shiloh, Hobgood (which he founded), Merrits Chapel, Rehoboth, Bethany, and Vaughn's Chapel.

Brother Cowan was a humble man who was determined to uphold the cause of His dear Redeemer that others might find Jesus Christ as their Lord and Saviour. That commitment called for sacrifices. It meant walking to some of his appointments or riding a bicycle when gas was in short supply, but he was always faithful to his appointments. During this past year, he heard the summons of His Lord calling him to his everlasting reward and eternal home.

REV. J. B. STONE was born January 10, 1910 in Marlboro County, South Carolina. At the age of twenty he was born again and started his journey toward the New Jerusalem. He soon felt the call of God to preach the Gospel, and he responded to that call with a "Here am I, Lord, send me." He needed a good companion for the demands of the ministry, and God gave him Miss Mary Belch, who was a tremendous blessing throughout his ministry. They made an excellent team and God richly blessed their labors. To this union God gave three sons—James, Jerry, and John—and two daughters—Ann and Joyce. Both of the girls are married to Pentecostal preachers; Ann to the president of a Bible College and Joyce to Bobby Collins, our Conference Treasurer. Most of us know one of the sons through the Jay Stone Singers.

Brother Stone served for some fifteen years with the Fire-Baptized Holiness Church before joining the North Carolina Conference of the Pentecostal Holiness Church in 1952. He retired from the active ministry in 1975. His twenty-three years of active service included pastorates at: Clarkton, Oak Ridge, Boardman, Chadbourn, Red Springs, Jacksonville, Alliance, and then another term at Boardman. In each assignment he gave himself faithfully to the work of the church and God blessed his labors. One of the remarks made by the Conference Superintendent at his funeral was, "He never complained. He always took his assignment as it was, to improve it before he left." He was a faithful soldier of the cross of Jesus Christ.

On Sunday, January 30, God sent His angel to a hospital room at the Cape Fear Hospital in Fayetteville to call His weary soldier home. He was waiting for the summons, and when he received the message, "Come Home," his spirit bounded from the tabernacle of clay and took its flight to the bright and beautiful land of the blessed.

Rev. W. Thomas Smith, Rev. J. B. Stone, and Rev. O. C. Cowan faithfully proclaimed the Gospel of Jesus Christ. It was not always easy, but they remained stedfast to the end. Now the battle is over, the course has been run, and victory has been secured forever.

They have left us, the church militant, to join the church triumphant. They have joined the spirits of just men made perfect, and they now stand with that great cloud of witnesses who lived and died by faith.

They have left us but their ministries will live on in the lives of their children, the churches they pastored, and the hearts of those touched by their ministry. Many will stand in that day and call them blessed.

They have left us
Yet again we hope to see them,
When the day of life has fled,
Then in Heaven with joy to greet them
Where no farewell tear is shed.

Now will the entire conference, the conference in which these soldiers of the cross served so faithfully, stand for a moment of silent prayer in their memory.

James D. Leggett

N. C. CONFERENCE CHRISTIAN EDUCATION CONVENTION JUNE 15, 1983

The 1983 C. E. Convention convened in the Culbreth Memorial Auditorium in Falcon at 9:00 A.M. on June 15, 1983, with prayer led by Rev. J. D. Lee.

Conference C. E. Director, Rev. Gary Strickland, led the Convention in singing "When We All Get To Heaven," and then presented the Presiding Officer, Rev. Wiley Clark, General C. E. Director.

Rev. Clark spoke briefly about "Three Things That Make a Church Great."

After the devotion, everyone attended the Workshop of his choice. The Workshops were:

1. How To Set Goals and Grow—Rev. Wiley Clark
2. How To Organize a Bible Quiz Team—Rev. Chris Thompson and Rev. Bobby Forehand
3. How To Equip Youth for Talent Competition—Rev. Frank Gentry and Mr. Noah Barefoot
4. How to Start An AFC Boy's Club—Rev. Paul Jackson and Rev. Terry Barts
5. How to Prepare Departmental Reports—Mrs. Westa Barefoot

After the Workshops, the Convention assembled again with singing led by Director Strickland.

Rev. Clark recognized Dr. David Hopkins, newly elected President of Emmanuel College, who spoke to us about Emmanuel.

Rev. Clark recognized Dr. James Leggett, who addressed the Convention in behalf of Holmes College of The Bible.

Rev. Clark recognized Rev. Thad White who also addressed the Convention about the upcoming bus trip he was sponsoring to the General C. E. Convention in Orlando, Fla.

Rev. Eddie Morris was recognized from the floor, by the presiding officer, and made inquiry as to how superannuated ministers may become delegates to the General C. E. Convention, and have their registration fee waived.

The Chair answered several miscellaneous questions about registration, and other items of interest concerning the General C. E. Convention.

The Chair recognized local Sunday Schools, Lifeliners, and AFC's to receive their respective rewards. The following awards were received.

Memoirs Report

During the past year God has chosen to take several of our WA members home to be with Him, and today we celebrate the lives of those women. This celebration is not with hilarity and loud noises, but it is with the joy of having known them. Recall the leadership they provided. The burdens they lifted, and the friendships they shared—these happy times together give reason for celebration. In your letters giving me the names of these women, you described them as "faithful member," "prayer warrior," "much missed member," and "charter member." Your description indicates a life worthy of celebration. Let us not look back with sorrow but gladness to know that our lives have been enriched by theirs. Rejoice with the Psalmist who said, "Blessed in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints."

Those whom God has chosen to call and the name of their WA are: Ayden—Minnie Nobles; Belfast—Mae Batten; Benson—Katie Jones; Calvary—Jamie Lee; Culbreth Memorial;—Beadie A. NCCWA PRESIDENT'S REPORT
July 1982-June 1983

PERSONAL

This Woman's Auxiliary Convention finds me rejoicing in the blessings of the Lord upon my life and my labors for Him. He lives in my heart, and my heart is filled with love to Him. I am thankful to the Lord for the opportunity of serving Him through the North Carolina Conference Woman's Auxiliary.

It has been a real pleasure working this year with the Women of the North Carolina Conference. It has been one of the busiest years of my life, but it has been most enjoyable. I spoke in 7 WA Days, presented 7 of the WA Workshops in the District Conferences, represented the WA at two LIFT Retreats (Oklahoma and Gatlinburg), and attended the Feast of Ingathering.

We have organized new Auxiliaries this year in Rocky Mount (YWA), Pinetown, and Faith in Edenton. It was a privilege to be present at these organizational meetings. It was a joy to visit in some of our WA's during the year during their regular meetings.

Our women are doing an excellent job in our churches for the family and the community. Thank you, Ladies, for a job well done, and may the Lord bless you in the next year with even greater achievements.

THE STATE OF THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

STATISTICS: We have had a good increase in the number of auxiliaries this year.

	1982	1983
WA	151	154
YWA	10	11
GA	63	67

The giving of our Women for the cause of Christ has shown significant increases in most areas, and the WA's are to be commended for their faithful giving each year. Once again our Conference WA gave the largest amount of money for our colleges at the Feast of Ingathering.

	1981	1982
General Project	$ 2,495.61	$ 2,841.60
Feast of Ingathering	22,097.19	34,842.10
Conference Project	8,486.50	1,720.00
Harvest Train	87,110.08	92,364.97
Missions	9,088.61	8,892.47

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE YEAR: The District Fellowship Conferences were exceptionally well attended. This reflects a keen interest on the part of our WA's for the overall work of the Woman's Auxiliary, and it is very pleasing to the Conference WA Board. I look forward to seeing you at the Fall Conferences with the largest offering you have ever given for our colleges.

What a wonderful retreat we had in Wilmington. There were over 500 ladies present as Mrs. Donna Stewart inspired our hearts with her marvelous messages.

The trip to our colleges each year for the Feast of Ingathering is always a very special event, and it is always very satisfying to be able to present your offerings to the colleges. We were "number one" again this year.

Girls from across the conference enjoyed the GA Retreats at Spencewood Christian Camp. There were two camps this year which made it quite easier and more enjoyable for everyone. Mrs. Beverly Barts is doing a fine job with the Girl's Auxiliary, and we appreciate her excellent work.

WA VISITS: A total of 117 visits have been made this year by Conference WA Officials. Thirty-seven of these visits were made by the President, and fifty-eight were made by Board Members, District Directors, and the GA Director.

AWARDS: Special Awards this year are given to the following Woman Auxiliaries.

Fourth Gold Crown Bar—Warrenton
